This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

PREFACE.

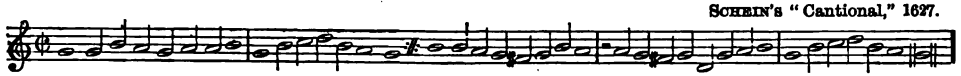
THE Collection of Hymns for which this Work was designed to furnish suitable music having recently been much enlarged, it became necessary to increase the number of tunes contained in the Volume, partly in order to provide for a considerable number of hymns written in metres before unknown to Methodism, partly to supply additional tunes for metres already in familiar use.

In the selection of the tunes, the same object has been kept in view as before, viz., to adopt such music only as may be employed in the intelligent expression of the sentiment of the hymns, without needless repetition of the words; the word "Hallelujah" being the only one repeated in connection with the music in the following pages.

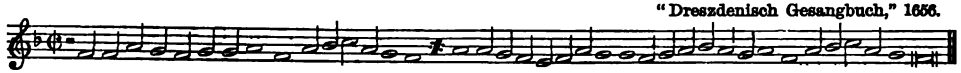
Many of the hymns in the "New Supplement" are translations from the German, and generally in the original metres. In such cases it has been thought desirable to adopt, as far as practicable, the original tunes. Under what form these should appear was often difficult to determine, because of the various readings exhibited by the tunes, as they are found in the German Hymnals and other works from which they are taken. The following, for example, are a few only out of a large number of diversities of setting presented by the tune known as "Luther's" in different German publications.

SPANGENBERG'S "Kirchengesenge," 1545.

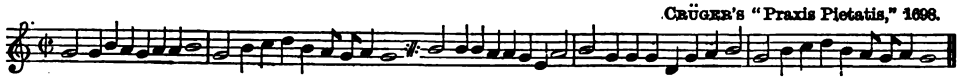
SCHEIN'S "Cantional," 1627.



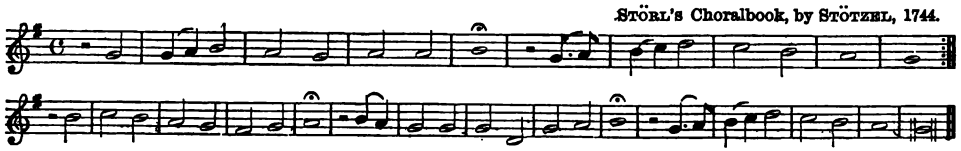
"Dreszdenisch Gesangbuch," 1656.



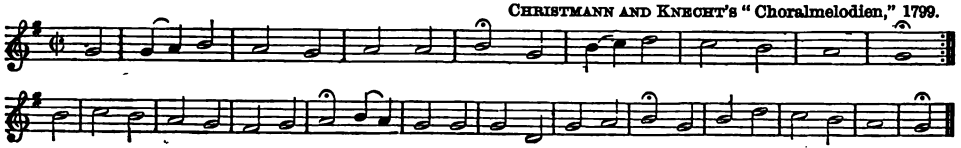
CRÜGER'S "Praxis Pietatis," 1698.



STÖRL'S Choralbook, by STÖTZEL, 1744.



CHRISTMANN AND KNECHT'S "Choralmelodien," 1799.



The sources and dates given with the tunes throughout the Volume are the earliest which could be verified from such printed books as were accessible during the preparation of it. It is well known, however, that several of the melodies were in print much earlier. Each melody is to be found in the work quoted in connection with it; but it does not always appear exactly in the form adopted in this volume.

The Compiler offers his grateful acknowledgments to the following Composers and Proprietors for permission to print their copyright tunes, &c.:—

PREFACE

TO THE FIRST EDITION.

THE following tunes are submitted to the Wesleyan Societies and Congregations, at the urgent request of many who take a lively interest in the improvement of our "Service of Song." It is earnestly hoped that they will prove acceptable to all who endeavour to "sing with the spirit;" that they will be found to accord with that high character of sacred poetry which marks the "Hymns for the use of the people called Methodists;" and that the adoption of them will promote intelligent expression and devout feeling in one of the most delightful exercises of Christian worship.

The present work dates its origin from a manuscript collection of tunes, prepared twenty-five years ago by John Fernley, Esq., for the congregation of the Wesleyan Chapel, Oxford Road, Manchester. The selection was made under the guidance of principles which did not then command the suffrages of the religious public. All fugued melodies, adaptations of popular songs, operatic and other secular music, and, with few exceptions, all repeating tunes—that is to say, such as could not be adapted to any verse of a hymn without some portion of the words being sung more than once—were carefully excluded. In these and in other respects it was much in advance of the period; for our hymn music, in common with that of other Christian Churches, was in a most deplorable condition, tunes of the class just pointed out being not only tolerated, but highly admired and constantly employed in our services, to such an extent, indeed, that music of truly devotional character was well nigh banished from the sanctuary.

Under these circumstances, it was not to be supposed that the tunes forming the Collection alluded to would be immediately received with favour; yet, from a firm conviction of their fitness for the purposes of congregational worship, they were gradually introduced, care being taken, as far as practicable, to employ the tunes better known for the first and last hymns in each service. In a short time opposition gave way; syllabic tunes were felt to be most suitable for the united expression of praise and prayer, and the music recommended itself to the intelligence of the congregation. This was only in accordance with general experience, for, whatever is correct in the application of music to devotional purposes, when rightly presented, seldom fails eventually to be appreciated, although preconceived opinions, the result of early association, and other causes may for a season prejudice the judgment.

During the interval before mentioned, many tunes were added to the Collection; partly to replace such as proved to be below the required standard, partly to supply the want of good "peculiar" metres, so that no hymn might be precluded from use by the want of music suited to its character.

When this object was in some measure accomplished, it was suggested that good service would be done by publishing the Collection in a cheap form. A difficulty, however, arose: the proprietors of certain copyright tunes would not permit their music to be reprinted on any terms whatever: hence the necessity, when the publication was decided upon, of introducing a number of new compositions. These have in no case been admitted for the sake of novelty, but to provide music for many of our finest hymns, which, but for such an arrangement, must have remained, so far as this Collection is concerned, without suitable music. A few familiar tunes are retained on account of their usefulness in the more private religious services of Methodism. The Chants, Responses, and Doxologies, which formed no part of the original plan, are inserted by special request.

It has been often remarked that tunes written in open notes are sung too slowly. On this subject there appears to be much misapprehension, which may partly account for the disuse of the good old melodies of Est and Ravenscroft; for it is not unusual to hear the "Old Hundreth," "York," &c.—types of cheerful congregational music—sung like dirges. The mistake lies in supposing that all music so written is necessarily slow, and that a minim, or any given note, must always indicate the same duration of time; whereas the value of a note, whatever it be, is only relative. Thus the minim in a chant, as usually sung, occupies less time in its performance than a crochet in the tune "Warwick," C.M., or a quaver in "Arabia," 8-8s, as commonly written,

These remarks are offered chiefly in order to give a correct view of the time intended by the notation adopted in the following pages, especially as regards the new compositions; for, if taken too slowly, their real character cannot be understood. Perhaps a more definite impression may be conveyed by the guiding terms, "Joyful," &c., prefixed to the tunes, these terms being supposed to represent the time as marked by the single beat of a pendulum or metronome, somewhat as follows:—

Joyful	Pendulum	22	inches.	Metronome	80 = ♩
Cheerful	„	27	„	„	72 = ♩
Moderate	„	31	„	„	66 = ♩
Slowly	„	38	„	„	60 = ♩
Slow	„	48	„	„	54 = ♩

The above indications have reference to tunes in common time only, and in following them it should be remembered that the character of the hymn, the construction of the melody, the size of the congregation, and many other circumstances will be found to exert an influence upon the speed of the music.

The character of our singing will be much improved if those who have the direction of it are ever careful to remember that the great design of music in the sanctuary is the solemn worship of God, and also the "teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs." The tune, therefore, should not be chosen for the sake of musical display, or to gratify a craving for novelty, but with a view to the united and impressive rendering of the hymn; the music should be kept in strict subservience to the poetry, and the union of both should be made to tend, so far as human science can secure such an object, to the glory of God and the edification of the people.

Constant attention to these points would prevent much that is to be lamented in our singing; the feelings of those who appreciate the devotional effect of well-adapted music would be spared unnecessary pain; and while none could suffer from a change, which is quite as much to be desired on religious as on other grounds, the general taste of our congregations would be insensibly refined and educated.

To facilitate the choice of proper tunes, when there is not sufficient time to make a deliberate selection, an index is placed at the end of the book, containing the numbers of the hymns, with the names and numbers of suitable tunes.

To those who have kindly permitted their copyright music to be inserted in this collection, the Compiler begs to offer his sincere thanks. To the Rev. H. Allon, for tune No.* 134 from the "Congregational Psalmist;" to the Rev. W. J. Blew, for Nos. 1, 36, and 55 from the "Church Hymn and Tune Book;" to G. J. Elvey, Esq., Mus. Doc., Organist of St. George's Chapel, Windsor, for No. 76; to C. Gardner, Esq., for Nos. 69 and 125; to John Goss, Esq., Organist of St. Paul's Cathedral, for Nos. 48 and 94, the insertion of the latter of these, taken from "Choral Harmony," being kindly permitted by the Rev. P. Maurice; to the Rev. W. H. Havergal, Canon of Worcester, for the arrangement of Nos. 30, 70, 108, and much valuable aid from "Old Church Psalmody," also for Chant 170; to C. Lonsdale, Esq., for Nos. 56 and 129; to J. McMurdie, Esq., Mus. Bac., and to Messrs. Brewer and Co., for No. 89; to the Proprietors of "Congregational Church Music," for No. 6; to A. R. Reinagle, Esq., for No. 19; to J. Hallet Sheppard, Esq., for No. 130; to W. Shore, Esq., for No. 51; to S. S. Wesley, Esq., Mus. Doc., Organist of Winchester Cathedral, for Chant No. 166; to Mr. Wesley, Queen's Head Passage, Paternoster Row, and to the Proprietors of Dr. Mainzer's "Standard Psalmody of Scotland," for No. 35; to Mrs. Wilson, Proprietress of the "Devotional Tune Book," for No. 126.

To Samuel Reay, Esq., Organist of the Parish Church, Bury, Lancashire, particular acknowledgments are due for the Doxology, No. 28, for several tunes of great merit composed for this work, and for the careful arrangement of many others. Lastly, to H. J. Gauntlett, Esq., Mus. Doc., very special thanks are offered for his masterly re-arrangement and revision of the greater portion of the music, and for much other valuable assistance in preparing the work for publication. Dr. Gauntlett has dedicated many years not only to the improvement of Church Music in general, but also to the composition of tunes, which, like those of Luther and the early composers, bear an individual expression of the text of many beautiful and highly-valued hymns. The numerous excellent original compositions supplied to this work, and to so many others by our distinguished countryman, justly place him in the highest position as a composer of this particular order of sacred music.

Hymn 851.

1. I will not let Thee go, Thou Help in | time of | need! ||
   Heap | ill on | ill, ||
   I | trust Thee | still, ||
   E'en when it seems that Thou wouldst | slay in- | deed! ||
2. Do as Thou | wilt with | me, ||
   I yet will | cling to | Thee; ||
   Hide Thou Thy face, yet, Help in | time of | need, ||
   I will not | let Thee | go! ||

3. I will not let Thee go. Should I for- | sake my | bliss? ||
   No, | Thou art | mine, ||
   And | I am | Thine, ||
   Thee will I hold when all things | else I | miss! ||
4. Though dark and | sad the | night, ||
   Joy cometh | with Thy | light, ||
   O Thou my Sun; should I for- | sake my | bliss? ||
   I will not | let Thee | go! ||

5. I will not let Thee go, my God, my | Life, my | Lord, ||
   Not | death can | tear ||
   Me | from His | care, ||
   Who for my sake His soul in | death out- | poured. ||
6. Thou diedst for | love to | me, ||
   I say in | love to | Thee, ||
   E'en when my heart shall break, my God, my | Life, my | Lord, ||
   I will not | let Thee | go! ||

Hymn 972.

Abide with me! fast falls the | even- | tide; ||
The darkness deepens; Lord, with | me a- | bide! ||
When other helpers fail, and | comforts | flee, ||
Help of the helpless, O, a- | bide with | me! ||

Hymn 973.

Sun of my soul! Thou | Saviour | dear, ||
It is not night if | Thou be | near; ||
O may no earth-born | cloud a- | rise, ||
To hide Thee from Thy | servant's | eyes! ||

Hymn 796.

Just as I am, with- | out one | plea, ||
But that Thy blood was | shed for | me, ||
And that Thou bidd'st me | come to | Thee, ||
O Lamb of | God, I | come! ||

Hymn 841.

My God and Father! | while I | stray ||
Far from my home, in | life's rough | way, ||
O teach me from my | heart to | say ||
Thy | will be | done. ||

Hymn 87.

Come, Holy Ghost, our | hearts in- | spire, ||
Let us Thine | influence | prove, ||
Source of the old pro- | phetic | fire, ||
Fountain of | light and | love. ||

INDEX TO SUITABLE TUNES.

THE first tune named in connection with each hymn is supposed to be best adapted to that hymn as a whole; though, in many instances, the second or even the third may be equally suitable; but when several verses of a hymn are omitted, a special adaptation is sometimes necessary in order to give the best expression to those verses which are sung.
